I. Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in paragraph 5 (d) of the annex to its resolution 58/316, entitled "Further measures for the revitalization of the work of the General Assembly", decided that in July of each year, the General Committee should conduct a review of the proposed programme of work for the forthcoming session of the Assembly, on the basis of a report submitted by the Secretary-General, and should also submit recommendations on the matter to the Assembly at its forthcoming session. The report should include information on the status of documentation to be issued during the forthcoming session.

2. The present report has been prepared in response to that request.

3. The draft programmes of work of the Main Committees, with the exception of the Fifth Committee,[1] have been approved by the respective Committees and were adopted by the General Assembly in the following decisions: First Committee (decision 62/515 of 5 December 2007); Special Political and Decolonization Committee (Fourth Committee) (decision 62/524 of 17 December 2007); Second Committee (decision 62/543 of 19 December 2007); Third Committee (decision 62/535 of 18 December 2007); and Sixth Committee (decision 62/517 of 6 December 2007).

4. To assist the General Committee and the General Assembly in their efforts to maximize both effectiveness and efficiency, this report contains only the draft programme of work of the plenary for the sixty-third session of the General Assembly. The details of the draft programmes of the Main Committees are available in the respective decisions. Additionally, the First, Second and Third Committees have also provided their respective tentative schedule of meetings.

5. The status of documentation will be issued as an addendum to the present report.

[1] The Fifth Committee has not taken a decision on this matter.
